

Solicitor Walt Wilkins Receives Patriotic Employer Award

Solicitor Walt Wilkins was presented the 2019 Patriotic Employer award by Bill Boozer, Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Employee Support of the Guard and Reserves (ESGR).

The Patriot Award reflects the efforts made by employers to support citizen warriors through a wide-range of measures including flexible schedules, time off prior to and after deployment, caring for families and granting leaves of absence if needed.

“I am deeply honored to be recognized with this award by both the military and ESGR,” said Solicitor Wilkins. “Everyone in my office is very proud of our citizen-soldiers and sailors and their families for the contributions and sacrifices they make for both our Country and community.”
