

Guidelines

The No Empty Bowls Pet Food Pantry is available to Greenville County residents ONLY (list of zip codes below), and will serve to assist pet owners during financial hardships.

- A photo ID is required to show proof of residency and each participant must provide proof of income qualifications in order to continue receiving food.
- Participants are limited to 1 visit every 3 weeks.
- Maximum amount of food per visit is 40 pounds total (cannot carry over to next visit).
- Participants will be required to spay or neuter any unaltered pets in their household. Anyone who qualifies to use the food pantry can have their pets spayed or neutered for free at Animal Care's clinic.
- Participants are not permitted to add any additional pets to their household while receiving assistance.
