S. C. Bar Pro Bono Program

Many South Carolina lawyers offer their services for free (pro bono) to clients who cannot afford to pay for help with civil legal matters. These matters include family, housing, bankruptcy or probate matters.

South Carolina Legal Services (SCLS) provides free legal services in a wide variety of civil (non-criminal) legal matters to eligible low income residents of South Carolina.

ASK A LAWYER

The South Carolina Bar is committed to promoting justice and educating the public through initiatives that foster trust.
The Ask-A-Lawyer Program coordinates volunteer lawyers for televised phone banks and Web chats in an effort to assist the public with its legal questions.
During each event, phone banks are aired on evening news programs to encourage the public to call in with questions. Lawyers also respond to questions via the Internet at www.scbars.org. Check the website for the schedule.

The South Carolina Bar sponsors free legal clinics around the state.
Most involve a 30-45 minute lecture followed by either a question and answer or five minute one-on-one session with an attorney. Check the website for a schedule www.scbars.org.

Consult with friends, relatives, and co-workers for attorney references.
